Human consciousness exists in a system supported and perpetuated into existence by the unaware position of the collective. There is a programming, or levels of programming, by which we continue to operate. This will be one of many subjects discussed as we examine the role of government, corporations, education, religion and a number of spiritual gurus as simply agents (many unaware) to outside forces at play.

You are continuously making attempts to remember something about your existence of which you just can't seem to get a grasp, and you just can't seem to wrap your mind around it. What if everything you have been taught about your potentials as a human being has all been programming? What if I told you that you can remember this information and that you have complete access to it; that you are made up of data; that you are quantum fields of information. This is based on the technology of one's consciousness; science is technology. We will also discuss the manner in which the current political agenda connects to the ushering in of a "New Age"/"New World," supported by the messiah complex. You are the solution, the secret scroll. Therefore, you must be kept asleep! These are just a few of the thought provoking topics to be discussed.
